BULLETIN BOARD DISPLAY AREA POLICY

The Newell Public Library Bulletin Board display area will be available for the following items:

1. Announcements of library-sponsored meetings, special events, and any other library-related displays.
2. Announcements of Newell area community groups or organizations meetings or special events.
3. Announcements of non-profit organizations meetings or events.

The Bulletin Board area will not be available for advertising for individual or business purposes which generate personal profits.

The librarians have the final authority on what items will be displayed.
